

Germans could go nuts on Blue Diamond products

GSG carried out market research and developed a route to market for almond products of the California-based cooperative.

An overview of the German savoury snack market was prepared, along with company and product range profiles of main players, store check details, route to market and recommendations.

Blue Diamond Growers were provided with all relevant data to progress market entry plans for Germany.